Two of my favourite kinds of books are young adult and mystery. So obviously when the two are combined, you have my attention. Personally, I find young adults at the very point of their life, and mystery can be a great way to explore the unknown.

This is what makes Spessart the textbook-setting of mystery tales: the feeling that we will find out. We'll get to know young adults at the very point of their life.,

Gabriella said: Do you guys know any good suspense/thriller/mystery novels that are clean?, Beth. I did not mean any offense either, just wish it was easier to get clean/secular. It's YA but I enjoyed it immensely and plan to read more by her.
